Lectionary Overview

Popular conceptions of God sometimes mislead us. Messages coming even from within Christianity sometimes make us think that God is constantly angry, just waiting for us to slip up. This week's readings remind us of the truth. Isaiah teaches us that God delights in God's people just as a groom delights in his bride. This love, the psalmist proclaims, is steadfast and never-ending. The life of Jesus shows us that God even wants us to have a good time in this life. Jesus chooses a wedding as the place to perform his first sign. He multiplies the wine in order to multiply the enjoyment of the guests. Paul in First Corinthians speaks of spiritual gifts. These gifts are all given by God for the good of the entire community.

Brain Teasing and Brain Storming

Who do we want to present to us?
What do we want to do different?
Food?
Themes?
Helpers?

With a few challenges to stimulate the mind ...

RI Information and Training afternoon

There is a very large short fall of RI teachers at the schools.

You don't have to be a qualified teacher you just have to love Jesus.

If you are interested in bringing Gods message to His little ones, come to this information session.
