SCRIPTURE OVERVIEW

God wants us to be rooted firmly in our faith. Jeremiah contrasts those who put their trust in themselves with those who trust in God. The latter are like healthy trees with deep roots and a constant water supply, never in danger of drying up or dying. The psalmist uses the same image to describe those who meditate on God's teachings. Thus, as you do these daily readings and reflect on them, you are sinking deep roots into fertile soil. Agricultural imagery is continued in Paul's letter. Paul describes Jesus Christ risen in the flesh as the first fruit, meaning that he is the first of many who will be resurrected. In Luke's version of the Beatitudes, worldly success is not necessarily an indication of God's blessing.

Hello Pastoral Carers,

Seems not time since we met in November to make some plans for our Pastoral Care. We arranged to meet again on Thursday, 21st February at 10:00 am for a business meeting ("Sapphire"; 48 Watson St PIALBA).

EVERYONE IS VERY WELCOME

especially those 16 people who were unable to make the November's get together.
